St. Louis, June 24.-Two women, one white and the other colored, were as saulted and left for dead about three and a half miles east of East St. Louis Tuesday morning, and a posse is looking for a negro described by one of his victims.

One of the victims, Mrs. Annie Green, a colored woman, aged twenty-five, was clubbed about the head, her skull fractured and her left arm broken. Just before relapsing into unconsciousness she told of the assault and described a light yellow negro, aged about twenty-five, as her assailant. The negro later proceeded to the home of John Bruno, a farmer living between East St. Louis and Belleville, and committed the second crime.

Tuesday afternoon a brother of returned home and found his sister lying on her bed, unconscious. Annie Green, who is at the Henrietta hospital, East St. Louis, is in a precarious condition, but there is a chance for her recovery.

Murphy was taken to the hospital, where e died within twenty minutes. Mc-Ray was hurried to the city jail and in less than an hour, a mob numbering at least 1,000 men and boys, had assembled and made a demand on the chief of police for the prisoner. The chief refused to surrender him. In the hope of distracting the attention of the mob, the fire department was called out and went to the jail. This it did, a large number of the crowd following the fire apparatus. In the meantime the chief of police had ordered all the electric lights of the city to be turned out and in the darkness McRay was hurriedly taken to the county jail In the meantime the mob discovered it had been deceived and formed in front of the county jail. ROONEY MUST HANG.

North Dakota Supreme Court Upholds New Law.

, Fargo, N. D., June 24.-The supreme court Tuesday decided that the death sentence of John Rooney, convicted of murder here last August, must be carried out. Rooney and two other men attempted to hold up the three Sweet brothers of White Earth Minn., who were camped near Fargo, en route to the harvest fields. Harold Sweet was killed. His brothers captured Rooney and the other men es-

The prisoner was convicted and during the trial the legislature passed a law, changing the place of executions from counties in which crimes occurred to the state penitentiary. It also changed the time that must elapse between sentence and execution to six months, instead of three. Judge Pollock of Fargo was not informed of the latter change and sentenced Rooney to be hanged June 26. When notified of the error the prisoner was returned and resentenced to be hanged in September. His attorneys appealed on the ground that the new law provided an additional penalty to that in practice at the time of conviction, in that the condemned man must be confined six instead of three months preliminary to execution and that the latter must occur in the pentientiary instead of the county jail.

The supreme court's decision upholds the new law, and Rooney's execution will be the first to occur in the penitentiary.

LIKES OUR CHORUS GIRL.

Paris Journalist Finds American Product Finest In the World. M. Jules Huret, a Paris journalist, who has been in nearly all parts of the United States making observations for his paper, the Figaro, thus summed up his conclusions recently when seen soon after his arrival in Chicago, says the

New York Herald: "The two things that impressed me most and that I admired most in this country were the plant of the steel trust at Pittsburg and the New York chorus girl. The steel works are extraordinary; the chorus girl is grand, delightful, delicious, "There is nothing in the world so well worth seeing and hearing as the chorus girl in America. In Europe the girls in the chorus can sing and dance, but they are mostly passe, and they have not the grace, the exquisite charm, of the American chorus girl when she executes what is a sort of combination of

"You have wonderful material progress, but in your cities there is lack of art. Your big buildings seem to have been built more for use than for appearance. I don't like the residences I have seen in this country except those in Washington and Los Angeles."

A BLOW AT SHAKESPEARE.

Chicago Teacher Calls Him a "Cheap Punster," Unfit For Children.

"Shakespeare should not be used in the grammar schools nor even in high schools where there are many pupils of foreign birth. Shakespeare was a cheap punster, and his wit was of a slim order. His jokes are often of a shady character. His language is behind the times. The bad grammar, bad spelling and bad morals which appear in his writings should not be set up as a standard for our young students to follow." These were among the observations made before the Chicago Principals' association the other day by Principal William E. Watt of the Graham school in Chicago, says the New York World. The views were expressed in the course of a discussion following the presentation of a committee report on English.

Mr. Watt declared that the same objections applied to some of Addison's writings, to Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield" and other classics. There was not a voice raised in behalf of the Bard of Avon or of Addison.

LIKES OUR CHORUS GIRL.

Paris Journalist Finds American Product Finest In the World. M. Jules Huret, a Paris journalist, who has been in nearly all parts of the United States making observations for his paper, the Figaro, thus summed up his conclusions recently when seen soon after his arrival in Chicago, says the New York Herald:

"The two things that impressed me most and that I admired most in this country were the plant of the steel trust at Pittsburg and the New York chorus girl. The steel works are extraordinary; the chorus girl is grand, delightful, delicious.

"There is nothing in the world so well worth seeing and hearing as the chorus girl in America. In Europe the girls in the chorus can sing and dance, but they are mostly passe, and they have not the grace, the exquisite charm, of the American chorus girl when she executes what is a sort of combination of the cancan and cake walk.

"You have wonderful material progress, but in your cities there is lack of art. Your big buildings seem to have been built more for use than for appearance. I don't like the residences I have seen in this country except those in Washington and Los Angeles."

A BLOW AT SHAKESPEARE.

Chicago Teacher Calls Him a "Cheap Punster," Unfit For Children.

"Shakespeare should not be used in the grammar schools nor even in high schools where there are many pupils of foreign birth. Shakespeare was a cheap punster, and his wit was of a slim order. His jokes are often of a shady character. His language is behind the times. The bad grammar, bad spelling and bad morals which appear in his writings should not be set up as a standard for our young students to follow."

These were among the observations made before the Chicago Principals' association the other day by Principal William E. Watt of the Graham school in Chicago, says the New York World. The views were expressed in the course of a discussion following the presentation of a committee report on English.

Mr. Watt declared that the same objections applied to some of Addison's writings, to Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield" and other classics. There was not a voice raised in behalf of the Bard of Avon or of Addison.

DELAY OF THE LAW

SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LYNCHING OF MISS BISH. OP'S MURDERER.

WAITING FOR THE INQUEST

STATE AUTHORITIES WILL THEN TRY TO ASCERTAIN IDENTITY OF MOB LEADERS.

Wilmington, Del., June 24.-The excitement attending the gruesome tragedy enacted Monday night outside the city limits, when George F. White, the negro who outraged and murdered seventeen-year-old Helen S. Bishop, was burned at the stake, has subsided The swift and dire punishment meted out to the perpetrator of the terrible crime is the sole topic of conversation, but the details are now calmly rehearsed. Public sentiment appears to deplore the resort to mob violence, but the concensus of opinion is that summary vengeance alone could atone for the outrage upon the life and honor of the young girl. It is generally believed that had the courts brought the murderer to speedy trial, the tragedy would have been averted. The judges who had postponed action upon the case of the confessed assail-DOMESTIC * CIGARS. ant of Miss Bishop explain their ac tion by stating that popular prejudice and indignation would have precluded the possibility of a fair trial.

Awaiting Results of the Inquest.

It is not known as yet what action the state authorities will take. Governor Hunn says he will confer with Attorney General H. H. Ward, The latter made a brief statement in which he said that the state will await the result of the coroner's inquest and that efforts would be exerted to ascertain the names of the leaders. Coroner McCormick has not fixed the date for the inquest.

Deputy Coroner Killmer, who Tues. day visited Price's Corners, the scene of the lynching, found little to view.

All semblance of human form in White's body had been obliterated by the avenging fire and the morbidly curlous relic-hunters. A small portion of the trunk and one or two charred bones were recovered and taken to the morgue. Of the hunireds of persons who visited the spot Tuesday where the funeral pyre was lighted, searcely one left without some ghastly memento. Fragments of clothing, pieces of wood, cinders and articles that bore mute testimony of the mob's work were eagerly sought.

One Man Arrested.

One arrest was made Tuesday by State Detective Francis. The prisoner is said to be Arthur Corwell of Baltimore. He is held on the charge of murder.

During the show of resistance made by the police and the jail officials when the mob attacked the Newcastle county workhouse, Peter Smith, a twelve-year-old boy, was shot in the back. The bullet which struck him evidently came from a pistol in the crowd, as it is claimed by the prison warden that his guards fired over the heads of the lynchers. Smith's condition is critical and he is not expected to live. Another young man, whose name is unknown, was slightly injured. The only other persons known to have been hurt was a man who was kicked in the abdomen by White, when the negro attempted to escape from his torturers, and another man who had his arm burned.

Mrs. Bishop, mother of the murder ed girl, is in a state of extreme nervousness.

"Blue Hen's Chickens."

Everybody knows that natives of Delaware are called "Blue Hen's Chickens," but not one in a hundred At Boston, 0; St. Louis, 6-eleven can tell you why they are so called. The epithet is said to have had its origin in the following:

One of Delaware's most gallant fighters in the war of the Revolution was a Captain Caldwell, who was notorious for his fondness for cockfighting. He drilled his men admirably, they being known throughout the army as "Caldwell's Gamecocks."

DELAY OF THE LAW

SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LYNCHING OF MISS BISH-OP'S MURDERER.

WAITING FOR THE INQUEST

STATE AUTHORITIES WILL THEN TRY TO ASCERTAIN IDENTITY OF MOB LEADERS.

Wilmington, Del., June 24.-The excitement attending the gruesome tragedy enacted Monday night outside the city limits, when George F. White, the negro who outraged and murdered seventeen-year-old Helen S. Bishop, was burned at the stake, has subsided The swift and dire punishment meted out to the perpetrator of the terrible crime is the sole topic of conversation, but the details are now calmly rehearsed. Public sentiment appears to deplore the resort to mob violence, but the concensus of opinion is that summary vengeance alone could atone for the outrage upon the life and honor of the young girl. It is generally believed that had the courts brought the murderer to speedy trial. the tragedy would have been averted. The judges who had postponed action upon the case of the confessed assailant of Miss Bishop explain their ac tion by stating that popular prejudice and indignation would have precluded the possibility of a fair trial.

Awaiting Results of the Inquest.

It is not known as yet what action the state authorities will take. Gov. ernor Hunn says he will confer with Attorney General H. H. Ward. The latter made a brief statement in which he said that the state will await the result of the coroner's inquest and that efforts would be exerted to ascertain the names of the leaders. Coroner McCormick has not fixed the date for the inquest.

Deputy Coroner Killmer, who Tuesday visited Price's Corners, the scene of the lynching, found little to view. All semblance of human form in White's body had been obliterated by the avenging fire and the morbidly curious relic-hunters. A small portion of the trunk and one or two charred bones were recovered and taken to the morgue. Of the hundreds of persons who visited the spot Tuesday where the funeral pyre was lighted, scarcely one left without some ghastly memento. Fragments of clothing, pieces of wood, cinders and articles that bore mute testimony of the mob's work were eagerly

One Man Arrested.

One arrest was made Tuesday by State Detective Francis. The prisoner is said to be Arthur Corwell of Baltimore. He is held on the charge

During the show of resistance made by the police and the jail officials when the mob attacked the Newcastle county workhouse, Peter Smith, a twelve-year-old boy, was shot in the back. The bullet which struck him evidently came from a pistol in the crowd, as it is claimed by the prison warden that his guards fired over the heads of the lynchers. Smith's condition is critical and he is not expected to live. Another young man, whose name is unknown, was slightly injured. The only other persons known to have been hurt was a man who was kicked in the abdomen by White, when the negro attempted to escape from his torturers, and another man who had his arm burned.

Mrs. Bishop, mother of the murdered girl, is in a state of extreme ner lish It at Duluth.

Duluth, June 24 .- At the afternoon session of the United church conference, Rev. N. B. European Squadron of American Navy Arrives at Kiel, Germany.

Kiel, June 24 .- The United States European squadron, Rear Admiral Cotton in command, reached its anchor age here at noon. The fleet commanded by Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, consisting of eight battleships and six cruisers, saluted the American vessels and the band of the German flagship played "America." Some hundreds of the townspeople gathered on the piers and the slopes of the nar row bay and gave detached, irregular cheers as the squadron arrived.

Prince Henry sent his navigating officers and the captain of the port down the bay early in the morning to meet the Americans. They met the latter at Orlateau as the squadron was firing its first salute off the port of Friederichsort.

The flagship Kearsarge swung into her mooring next to the Hohenzollern, followed by the San Francisco, Chi cago and Machias, all the German ships being dressed in the visitors honor and flying the Stars and Stripes. The commanders of the American ships then called on Prince Henry who immediately returned their calls The Stars and Stripes were also raised over the Yacht club and on the hotels in the vicinity.

Rear Admiral Cotton and Rear Admiral Hemphill, commander of the Kearsarge, and all the other American commanders also called on the eight German admirals and vice admirals stationed in this, the greatest stronghold of German sea power, and afterwards received their return calls. Most of the afternoon was spent in calling and receiving calls.

more, and A. G. Glick, Iowa.

Everybody knows that natives of Delaware are called "Blue Hen's Chickens," but not one in a hundred can tell you why they are so called. The epithet is said to have had its origin in the following:

One of Delaware's most gallant fighters in the war of the Revolution was a Captain Caldwell, who was notorious for his fondness for cockfighting. He drilled his men admirably, they being known throughout the army as "Caldwell's Gamecocks."

This same Caldwell held to the peculiar theory that no cock was really game unless its mother was a blue hen. As the months were away Caldwell's men became known as the "Blue Hen's Chickens," a title which only increased their respect for the old gamecock captain. The nickname became famous and after the close of the war was applied indiscriminately to all natives of
